

Sixth Grade

World History Power Standards

World History and Geography: Ancient Civilization

WH 6.1 Students describe what is known through archaeological studies of the early physical and cultural development of humankind from the Paleolithic era to the agricultural revolution.

WH 6.2 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the early civilizations of Mesopotamia, Egypt, and Kush.

WH 6.3 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the Ancient Hebrews.

WH 6.4 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the early civilizations of Ancient Greece.

WH 6.5 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the early civilizations of India.

WH 6.6 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the early civilizations of China.

WH 6.7 Students analyze the geographic, political, economic, religious, and social structures of the early civilizations of Rome.

WH 6.8 Students discuss the legacies of Roman art and architecture, technology and science, literature, language, and law.